CAPT Juliette C. Taylor PharmD, MBA, RAC, BCPP

President-elect

Dr. Taylor, Captain in the United States Public Health Service, is the Senior Policy Advisor in the Division of Psychiatry (DP), leading policy initiatives and stakeholder engagements for the division. She has led many process improvement initiatives and contributed to development of FDA Guidance for Industry in the areas of labeling and clinical trial design for psychiatric drugs. She has also served as the Associate Director of Labeling and Regulatory Project Manager since joining DP in 2009. She completed a Doctor of Pharmacy degree and Geriatric Pharmacotherapy residency at the University of Maryland School Baltimore. She received an MBA from Thunderbird School of Global Management. She is an Adjunct Professor at the University of Maryland and has guest lectured for the Master of Regulatory Science Program. She is passionate about advancing international public health and applies best business practices to strengthening partnerships with academia, industry, and global counterparts in promoting drug development. Before FDA, she has worked in academic, consulting, and managed care environments. She enjoys traveling, is a proud mom of two teenage boys, and loves music – playing, listening and dancing to most anything.
